

To whom it may concern

I am writing this reference at the request of Ganna Lobanova. She asked me to provide this general letter that she may show to any prospective university that asks her for references.

Ganna Lobanova has a number of strengths to offer. She is a very highly motivated person who is ready to work hard in order to achieve good results. She is initiative, creative and independent.

Ganna has both written and spoken communication skills at a good level. Sometimes she is able to convince the listener of her point of view. Depending on the situation, she can simplify her expression to ensure that she is unequivocal. She likes to perform during various student conferences and meetings. During such oral presentations she likes to apply visual aid as well.

Ganna has shown good leadership skills during her teaching practice in the specialized lyceum #5 in Odessa, Ukraine. She was teaching English Literature to children of 14-15 years old and the Culture and Poetry of England to children of 16-17 years old. She was in good terms with all children of the class. Besides her occupation in teaching she also took part in organizing different extracurricular activities such as the celebration of Valentine's Day. She had good relations with children and I think this is an excellent indicator of her good leadership skills. Ganna is flexible and easy to get on with when working in a team.

Ganna Lobanova has proved herself to be a good student. She is able to grasp concepts rapidly and elucidate them with ease. Her good knowledge of English and French is useful and practically important. She is a passionate and self-confident student who likes to learn and to apply her knowledge in life.

In conclusion I would recommend Ganna Lobanova and think that she will be a positive addition to a research group.
